WAS A LEADER AMONG CLERGY

Rev. D. J. O'Sullivan of St. Albans Passed Away Yesterday Afternoon

27 YEARS RECTOR AT ST. MARY'S, ST. ALBANS

Fr. O'Sullivan Was Recently Candidate for Bishop of Burlington Diocese

St. Albans, Nov. 8.—Rev. D. J. O'Sullivan, aged 65 years, for 42 years one of the most prominent priests in the Burlington Catholic diocese, and for 27 years permanent rector of St. Mary's church in this city, died yesterday afternoon after a two weeks' illness. He is survived by five sisters, Miss Mary A. O'Sullivan of Burlington, Miss Margaret O'Sullivan, who made her home with her brother, Mrs. Francis O'Neill of Portland, Me., Mrs. Charles A. Fitzpatrick of Winoski and Mrs. William Bussey of Troy, N. Y. He was a brother of the late Rev. W. J. O'Sullivan of Montpelier and Judge T. C. O'Sullivan of New York.

Father O'Sullivan was born in Winoski Jan. 14, 1853, the second of 10 children born to John and Margaret (McAvoy) O'Sullivan. He was educated at the Montreal college and the celebrated Sulpician seminary, Montreal. He was ordained priest in Winoski Dec. 21, 1876. After assisting at Brandon and holding the pastorate of the church at White River Junction, with missions at several other places in connection with the latter pastorate, his health failed and he suffered repeated hemorrhages, obliging him to resign in 1882. That fall he went on a year's tour of Europe and the Holy Land.

Returning home, Father O'Sullivan took a temporary curateship of the parish at Montpelier and afterward at St. Mary's cathedral, Burlington. In September, 1884, he was appointed director of St. Joseph's college, Burlington, which position he held seven years. On the death of the Very Rev. Z. Drouhin he was appointed permanent rector of St. Mary's.

He was one of the incorporators of the Catholic diocese of Burlington, moderator of the matrimonial court and diocesan director of the Apostleship of Prayer. He was one of the three whose names were sent to the pope in 1907 as candidates for the bishopric of the diocese. Father O'Sullivan was a scholarly man of broad culture, unsurpassed of his time and strength in his religious work. During the recent epidemic in this city he visited the sick and dying and officiated at funerals until his own strength failed. Among his friends were numbered people of every class and creed.

Topics of the Home and Household.

Celery can be kept fresh for several days by wrapping the stalks in a wet towel and keeping them in a cold cellar.

When baking potatoes, cut a snip from the ends of each. This will let out the moisture and make them appear mealy.

Before baking potatoes, let them stand in hot water for 15 minutes. They will require only half the time for baking, are more mealy and palatable and if they are baked in a gas oven, the saving in gas is considerable.

A Quick Meal for Cleaning Day.

Cleaning days and wash days would slip by pleasantly enough if it were not for the meal which has to be prepared right in the midst of things. And now that it has become so difficult to secure help for the kitchen, the difficulty increases.

The United States food administration suggests a "cleaning day" luncheon which conserves the food it should with just one dish to prepare. The menu follows: Shepherd's pie, brown bread (barley, oat and corn), berries (in season), iced tea. Shepherd's Pie—2 cups chopped cooked mutton, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1/4 teaspoon curry powder, 2 cups tomato, 2 cups peas or carrots, 1/2 cup brown sauce or water. Put meat and vegetables in baking dish. Cover with rice, hominy or potato which has been cooked. Bake until brown.

Tested War Recipes.

Rutland women have tried these recipes with success:

Miss Elizabeth W. Clement submitted the first, Mrs. F. G. Swinnerton the second and Mrs. George F. Grey the third: Corn Meal Gingerbread—1 cup of corn meal, 1/4 cups buckwheat, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon soda, 2 teaspoons ginger, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/4 teaspoon cloves, 1 cup new milk (sour), 1 cup molasses, 2 tablespoons shortening, 1 egg. Sift together the dry ingredients, combine the milk, molasses and melted shortening and beaten egg. Add the liquid ingredients to the dry, stir well, bake in moderate oven.

Corn Cake—1 egg, 1/4 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons drippings or butter substitute, 1 cup sweet milk, 1 cup corn meal, 1/2 cup barley flour, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 2 level teaspoons baking powder.

Candy Substitute—1 beaten egg, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 cup coconut, 1 cup uncooked oatmeal. Bake in small cakes like macaroons.

Pudding Sauces.

Egg or Plain Pudding Sauce—1 egg (beaten), add 1 cup sugar and beat, pour on 1 1/2 cups boiling water. Cook a minute. Flavor with lemon or vanilla.

Orange and Lemon Sauce—1 cup sugar, 1/4 cup butter, 1 egg well beaten, juice of orange and juice of 1/2 lemon. Beat well and serve.

Wine Sauce—1/2 cup butter, 1 cup powdered sugar, 3 tablespoons sherry, slight grating nutmeg. Cream butter, add sugar gradually and wine slowly. Pile on glass dish and sprinkle with nutmeg.

Chocolate Sauce—Boil 1 cup sugar with 1/2 cup water and a few grains of cream tartar about 8 minutes. Melt slowly 1 1/2 squares of unsweetened chocolate over hot water, and pour on gradually while constantly stirring the hot syrup. Flavor with vanilla.

Strawberry Sauce—1 large tablespoon butter beaten to cream. Add gradually 1 1/2 cups powdered sugar and the white of 1 egg. Beat till very light, and just before serving add 1 pint of mashed strawberries.

Maryland Sauce—Cream 2 tablespoons butter with 4 tablespoons brown sugar and the yolks of 2 eggs. Add 1/2 cup mashed peaches or peach syrup and 1/2 stick of cinnamon. Cook over hot water till thick.

Cream Egg Sauce—Beat whites of 2 eggs till stiff and add 2 yolks unbeaten. Add 1/4 cup sugar and beat till creamy. Flavor with vanilla to taste.

Hard Sauce—1-3 cup butter, 1 cup powdered sugar, 1-3 teaspoon lemon extract, 2-3 teaspoon vanilla extract. Cream butter, add sugar gradually and flavoring.

Loans Aid 8,806 Farmers to Plant Wheat.

A total of 8,806 applications for seed grain loans were approved by the branch office of the United States department of agriculture at Wichita, Kan., and $2,025,262 was loaned to drought-stricken farmers from the $5,000,000 emergency fund provided by the president. These loans were limited to $3 an acre for not to exceed 100 acres, and were made only to farmers whose credit was exhausted by reason of two successive crop failures on account of drought. The money was for the purchase of seed for fall planting. At the customary rate of seeding—two to three pecks of wheat per acre in the dry counties—this loan was sufficient to purchase enough seed wheat to sow more than a million acres that otherwise might not have been seeded. L. M. Estabrook, chief of the bureau of crop estimates, and assistant to the secretary of agriculture, was in charge of the Wichita office which served the southwest territory—Kansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Texas. A report of loans made in the northwest region through the department's branch office at Great Falls, Mont., in charge of Prof. G. L. Christie, now assistant secretary of agriculture, will be issued soon.

DEATH FOLLOWED HIS PROMOTION

Capt. Hamilton Coolidge, a Former Harvard Football Player

WAS SHOT DOWN BY AIRCRAFT FIRE

He Had Received the New Honor Five Days Before End Came

With the American Army on the Sedan Front, Thursday, Nov. 7.—Captain Hamilton Coolidge, former football player at Harvard university and son of Professor J. Randall Coolidge of Boston, was killed on October 27 when his airplane was shot down by German aircraft fire near Grand Pre. The plane fell within the American lines.

Captain Coolidge received his promotion from the rank of first lieutenant five days before his death. At the time he was shot down he was acting as a protector of the expedition which bombed the town of Briquigny, four miles north of Grand Pre. His body was buried in the American cemetery on the edge of Argonne forest.

FIGHTING WAY 2600 MILES.
Czechoslovaks Are Writing Wonderful Page in History.

Vladivostok, Nov. 8.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press).—General Gaidis Czechoslovaks fighting their way through 2,600 miles of hostile territory furnishes a tale no less thrilling than that related of Cortes' drive from Vera Cruz to the ancient Aztec capital in the sixteenth century. Like his success, also like those of the adventurous Spaniard, were due to his unflinching courage and ingenious tactics and to the loyalty of his men.

When the order came from Petrograd countermanding the permission given for the free movement of the Czechoslovaks toward Vladivostok, it found them strung out in a thin line from the Volga to Vladivostok. A 12-day truce, following the first serious clash at Irkutsk when the bolsheviks undertook to disarm a trainload of Czechs, applied only to eastern Siberia and was utilized by Gaidis' men to get a running start for the plunge through the thickest of the struggle. Thereafter his policy appears to have been to constantly prepare and execute some surprise until the enemy was in such a state of nerves that the approach of a body of Czechoslovaks, no matter how small, was likely to throw him into a panic.

Assisted by Cossacks and by Czechs from Chilibinsk, Colonel Kadlets, then commander of the Czechs forces west of Irkutsk, fought his way west to Omsk, taking towns en route. He improved the time during the armistice to clean up the line westward to the Urals. Meantime, with resumption of hostilities to the eastward the Czech-Slovak forces between Krasnoyarsk and Irkutsk fought themselves hard pressed and near to the end of their resources. Kadlets doubled back eastward and by a series of flanking movements, falling upon the bolsheviks in the night, stamped them time after time. In this way he pushed through to the relief of his countrymen at Krasnoyarsk and Irkutsk.

From Irkutsk to the southernmost point of Lake Baikal there are 41 tunnels. It was the Czechs' aim to clear out the bolsheviks without giving them time to blow up these tunnels, and to that they started a very real and constant overland to surprise the bolsheviks beyond the series of tunnels. These men marched four days under greatest difficulties. They became so pressed for food supplies that they had to eat their horses. But they accomplished their object. They attacked the bolsheviks in the middle of the night, captured their machine guns and started them northward in disorder. The bolsheviks succeeded in blowing up one tunnel, the last one in the series.

The Czechs and their Russian allies now had a clear track to the southern extremity of the lake, to a village named Shujanska, where the blocked tunnel presented a serious obstacle to further progress. They dragged a few light guns over the ridge and marched several contingents of troops around the obstruction, only to find the bolsheviks massed in force some 20 miles beyond. The Czechs and Russians suffered heavy losses in the fighting here and were forced back to within a few miles of the tunnel.

Meantime the Czechs had cleared the tunnel sufficiently to pass troops through on foot. General Gaidis, who had succeeded Colonel Kadlets in command, caused decoy messages to fall into the enemy's hands, begging for help and declaring that the tunnel was hopelessly blocked and he in desperate straits, surrounded and at the end of his resources. The bolsheviks thereupon moved southward in high spirits, throwing aside all caution. Bands played and their progress was in the nature of a triumphal march.

A few miles from the tunnel they ran into an ambush which completely demoralized them. Machine guns raked them from the hillsides and field guns shelled them front and rear. A tattered remnant of the bolshevik army fled northward with the few trains they were able to save.

CATHOLIC WOMEN WORKING.

Five Million Reported to Be Pledged for War Work Drive.

Nearly 5,000,000 Catholic women in every part of the United States have been pledged to aid the great United War Work campaign, which will be held the week of Nov. 11-18. The Catholic women of the country are organized in 10,000 parishes. By the time the drive actually begins diocesan committees on women's activities will be established in every diocese. Their work will be carefully planned and ready for a strong intensive campaign.

Realizing that the war cannot be fought successfully without the help of the women, every woman's committee in the church is turning its attention to actual war needs. From the women must come nurses, accountants, aids in hospitals, aids in camps, entertainments for soldiers and aids for travelers. The women's committees have visitors' houses at many of the big camps in the country.

One of the principle works of the national committee on women's activities is the construction and supervision of visitor houses. This work commands the services of many organizations throughout the country.

The National Catholic War council at its inception turned its attention and efforts to the Catholic women. The women's committee was immediately planned for the general purpose of assisting the women in their efforts to help win the war.

At the present time, a complete directory of all Catholic women's societies is being compiled. Through this directory an accurate survey will be made of the work already accomplished. The committee is ready to submit a program of war relief measures which will be based on the work actually done by Catholic women's organizations. It will also be in a position to know directly the needs of the government and of the soldiers and sailors and will serve as a general agent of communication between the government and the various bodies of Catholic women throughout the country.

In their work through the country the women of the National Catholic War council are co-operating with the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Jewish Welfare board, American Library association, War Camp Community service and the Salvation Army, in their plans for victory boys and victory girls. Every youngster in school will be asked to do his bit in helping out the drive over to a big victory. The children will earn their own money and give it to the campaign under direction of a national plan which will put the whole thing almost on a military basis as far as the small people of the communities are concerned. Every small boy and girl will have a chance to enlist to help Uncle Sam.

The national Catholic committee of women's activities is led by Rev. William J. Kerby, Ph. D., chairman, and Rev. John Cooper, Ph. D., secretary.

Brief Enough to Be Read.

In lieu of a platform, which can be adopted only by a regularly constituted convention, the Republican leaders of the state have drawn up and promulgated a declaration of principles containing ten topics. It declares for a business administration; the doing of everything necessary to win the war; no peace without victory; business principles in national affairs; the return of public utilities to private ownership after the war; a brief session of the legislature; state pay for Vermont soldiers and sailors; better teachers and better schools and the return of rural schools to rural communities; trunk line highways and better back roads; deeper waterways for Vermont lakeports. While perhaps not of the binding nature of a platform the foregoing declaration has the compensating advantage of being brief enough to be read. At the same time it contains enough to assure a busy session of the legislature. It is noticeable that there is no reference to the liquor question, which is generally conceded to be settled so far as Vermont is concerned.—Brattleboro Reformer.
